CFR -- POWER BEHIND THE THRONE

Propaganda Mills Grind Out "The Big Lie" Giving Favorable Image To Marxists And Waging War On Patriots

By J. JOHNSTON McCauley

We now have a one-party political system under two labels, dominated and controlled by the sinister Council on Foreign Relations, whose membership is composed of persons posing as Republicans and Democrats, some of them in lofty positions in the Federal Government and in the United Nations, whose objective is to convert this country into a Socialist one and make it a unit in a one-world Socialist system.

This powerful organization establishes the policies of the Executive branch of our government, and through its many interlocking groups, "educates" and brings pressure to bear on our solons in Congress to support its policies. In this incredible propaganda net-work, all work in their own way toward the goal. Many have Federal tax-exemption as "educational" groups and are financed in part by tax-exempt foundations and funds.

The C.F.R. controls many major publications through which it poisons peoples' minds, distorts and dilates the truth, twists and slants facts, and hurls accusations at all patriots. Its evil purposes are hidden behind a false front of words that have been sheared of their generally accepted meanings. Its propagandists are adept at using words to deceive and to becloud the issues.

When "peace" is discussed, a word that has such great appeal for mankind, the fact is concealed the peace they have in mind is the termination of all resistance to their tyranny; when "democracy" is discussed, the fact is hidden the kind of a democracy they aim to establish is the reduction of all men and women (except the Socialist hierarchy) to a common dead level of servitude to the all-powerful state.

The majority of CFR members are from all walks of life, joined together by their quest for power and influence. Unlike dedicated Marxists in the Soviet Union, the Fabianists in Great Britain, the League for Industrial Democracy (formerly, Intercollegiate Socialist Society), in the United States, or dedicated patriots, they actually have no ideology of their own, and are not sincerely committed to a cause. They are willing to cooperate with anybody, right or wrong, who will, at least for the present, preserve their special privileges. However, since the Council on Foreign Relations has concluded the pattern of the future will be essentially a Socialistic one, the men of this power structure have committed themselves more and more openly to support Socialistic plans and projects.

It believes that the manner in which free people wish to conduct their own lives and the life of the country, has little to offer in the way of national welfare, wealth control, attaining power and the force of public opinion. And it is of the opinion that individual freedom is of secondary importance compared to their holding the reins of power, controlling the national wealth and the expedient handling of all major publications. It assures us that the control

Advertising, public relations and communications, are full-fledged professions today and it is possible for an expert in these fields to build an "image" favorable or otherwise, for anyone or anything in a surprisingly short time. For this reason, the Council on Foreign Relations has concentrated particularly in these areas and pays for and obtains the best in advertising, public relations and manipulation of the majority of publications. This enables the Council to play its enormous role in shaping public opinion on constructing and destroying public figures and ideas.

The history of the rise of collectivist tyranny to power in many countries indicates a disturbingly similar pattern which the Council may be re-enacting in this country. There are those who want power and do everything possible to obtain it. They congregate with others of their ilk who are of like minds and goals, who provide the most appealing alibi for giving these vicious persons the power they seek.

An all-out effort is being made to destroy the Minutemen. The National coordinator, Robert B. DePugh, and two assistants have been arrested. The Minutemen headquarters were recently raided by the Police Department of Independence, Mo., and tape recorders and other materials confiscated. DePugh has been charged with the "kidnapping" of two girls, allegedly to make them "spies" to seduce subversives in our government. DePugh has been served with a subpoena demanding his membership lists and other confidential records. The Courts ruled in one Southern State that the NAACP did not have to reveal their membership lists, but in the case of the Minutemen, the situation is different. The Gestapo would like names — names of patriots to threaten, intimidate and smear.

The smear of the organization with the kidnap charge (under circumstances of an obvious frame-up) is not the real issue. The fact that his records have been demanded is serious. This fits into Walter Reuther's plan to destroy the patriotic movement in America. If the Minutemen organization is destroyed now it will only be a matter of time until every other conservative group will be investigated and purged.

The August issue of ON TARGET deals with the Minutemen kidnap charge and the resultant investigations. Send token offering of at least 25c to obtain details and up-to-date information of this vital case. Financial assistance is needed to cover legal expenses, bonding fees and other costs connected with this fight. Do your best. Write direct to: ON TARGET, P. O. Box 172, Independence, Missouri.

Council On Foreign Relations

modern times for the concentration of power, hence an alliance between those who really embrace this alien ideology and those who merely wish to use it for their own selfish purposes. The power-seekers give the liberal intellectuals and other sincere, misguided persons their platform. In return, they get what is claimed to be a moral justification. As this process continues, it soon attracts the inevitable "leeches" who hope to work through the power of others to attain some power and privilege of their own. In this way the Council grows and makes more and more compromises with Socialism, tending to bring it closer to a reality in this nation. The great majority of the people in this country have not observed this pattern. However, with the increasing exposure of the Council on Foreign Relations, patriotic Americans are discovering the lengths to which this Socialistic group is willing to proceed to achieve its aims.

In the months ahead, as CFR efforts will be expedited, more and more of its true nature will be exposed. It will come as an unpleasant surprise to them, despite their calculations and conniving, to discover that a free people are, after all, also at liberty to make up their own minds as to how they shall live and in what their best interests consist. They are even free, if they will, to elect public officials who believe in more freedom and less government. The existence of the Council on Foreign Relations is one of the best reasons for making such a selection. Nobody who is aware of the fundamental strength of the multitude of Americans and their devotion to liberty, can ever believe the triumph of this alien ideology of Socialism is inevitable no matter how many gains it makes. This awareness, however, is exactly what many seem to have lost. They have come to think of the American people as pawns in a national and world-wide game of political chess in which they have lost control over their destiny. Too many do not seem to realize all Americans still have a will of their own and can still alter the course of history in their favor in the war for freedom, if they are resolved to do so.

The Council on Foreign Relations will rule so long as we do not know about its activities or are unwilling to do anything about them. It cannot exist without the power given by the Federal Government to work its will upon the country. If our government were returned to its basic defensive and protective purposes, i.e.: police, military defense, the courts, and no other, it would no longer serve as the cornerstone for the rise to power of any group such as the C.F.R. In a truly free society, not power but trade, would be the basis for men's relations with one another. Instead of rule, there would be exchange; instead of oppression, production; instead of vicious political activities, a broad commitment in favor of freedom above everything.

History indicates that in September 1917, President Woodrow Wilson, appointed a committee which included Walter Lippman, Norman Thomas, Allen Dulles, John Dulles, and Christian Herter to formulate peace terms and to prepare a charter for world-government. Subsequently, a League of Nations Covenant was drawn up which was not approved by the Congress. Frustrated and dismayed, Wilson turned to his mentor, Colonel Edward M. House, for succor. After much discussion with others of like minds, it was agreed to set up an organization to create (condition the people to accept) what the Colonel referred to as a "positive" foreign policy to replace the traditional "negative" foreign policy which had kept us out of endless turmoil of old-world policies and had permitted us to develop our great nation in freedom and independence from the rest of the world. The result was the founding of the Council on Foreign Relations. Though incorporated in 1921, it did not accomplish much until the Rockefeller family began to finance it.

The Council on Foreign Relations invaded the State Department in 1939, at which time an arrangement was consummated whereby the Council would assume work in certain fields without any formal assignment of responsibility. In 1941, a department, called the Division of Research, was created, with Dr. Leo Pasvolksky, a Council member, as Director. An advisory committee was set up to handle postwar policies, of which Cordell Hull, a Council member, became Chairman, and Sumner Welles, a Council member, as Vice Chairman.

In 1945, forty-three members journeyed to San Francisco to participate in the organizational meeting of the proposed United Nations, among whom were Alger Hiss, Edward Stettinius, John Dulles, John McCloy, Nelson Rockefeller, Adlai Stevenson, and Ralph J. Bunche.

By 1949, its membership included many political personages, industrialists, bankers, high-ranking military and naval officers. And by 1960, prominent pseudo Republicans and Democrats, in both the Upper and Lower Houses of the Congress became members. By 1963, propagandists, commentators, columnists, editors, publishers and reporters, became aligned with the Council on Foreign Relations, among whom were:

Weisner, Presidential Aid; Harry Dexter White, formerly Presidential Advisor; Henry M. Wriston, President, American Assembly; Sidney J. Weinberg, Banker.

Harry Yarnell, Rear Admiral, U. S. Navy.

Robert Sarnoff, National Broadcasting Company.

It is not to be assumed that all of those mentioned are controlled by the Council on Foreign Relations, or that they uniformly support the entire program of international Socialism. It merely has varying degrees of influence on them, and in some instances, the degree is high.

Some resigned when they learned the Council's aims and purposes. Had those who became members in May 12, 1961, investigated, they would have discovered that Dr. Philip Mosley, Director, Council on Foreign Relations, announced that "prominent Soviet and American citizens will hold a week-long unofficial conference on Soviet-American relations, in the Soviet Union, beginning May 22." He further stated that the State Department had approved of the meeting, but that the Americans involved, would only go to Russia as "private citizens" and would express their own views. The New York Times had this to say about the meeting:

"The importance attached by the Soviet Union to the meeting appears to be suggested by the fact that the Soviet group will include three members of the Communist Party's Central Committee, and one candidate-member of that body.

"The meeting, to be held in the town of Mizhyaya, in the Crimea, will follow the pattern of a similar unofficial meeting, in which many of the same persons participated, at Dartmouth College, last fall. The meetings will take place in private and there are no plans to issue an agreed statement on the subjects discussed.

"The topics to be discussed include disarmament and the guaranteeing of international peace, the role of the United Nations in strengthening international security, the role of advanced nations in aiding underdeveloped countries, and the prospects for peaceful and improving Soviet-United States relations.

"The Dartmouth conference last fall and the scheduled Crimean conference originated from a suggestion by Norman Cousins, editor of Saturday Review and co-Chairman of the American group going to Crimea, when he visited the Soviet Union a year and a half ago.

"Mr. Cousins and Dr. Mosley formed a small group early last year to organize the conferences. It received financial support from the Ford Foundation for the Dartmouth conference and for travel costs to the Crimean meeting. This group selected the American representatives for the two meetings.

"Among those who participated in the Dartmouth conference were several who have since taken high posts in the Kennedy Administration, including Dr. Walt W. Rostow, now an assistant to President Kennedy, and George F. Kennan, now United States Ambassador to Yugoslavia."

The head of the Soviet delegation to the Council on Foreign Relations meeting in the Soviet Union on May 22, 1961, was Alexander Y. Korneichuk, an intimate friend of Nikita Khrushchev. The Americans who attended, besides Mr. Cousins and Dr. Mosley, included Dean Griswold, Arthur Larson, Gabriel Hauge, William Loos, Stuart Chase, George Fisher, William Benton, Paul Doty, Lloyd Reynolds, Louis Sohn, Joseph Johnson, and Robert Bowie.

The Honorable James B. Utt, Congressional Representative (California), covered the situation very well when he said:

"We are rapidly coming to a point where a complete change of elected officials, including Congress and the White House, can mean little change on policy. You are governed more by people for whom you never voted, for whom you will never vote, whom you have never seen, and whom you cannot recall by your vote. They are entrenched in the boards, bureaus and commissions, even at the policy level. For example, you may think that the Secretary of Labor sets the policy of that department, but I know that much of the policy of that department is set by Civil Service employees who have been with the department for twenty years, and they have no intention, now or ever, of recommending to the Secretary of Labor any policy which does not fit their personal philosophy of government and you cannot remove them or replace them by your ballot. The same situation exists in the State Department, and in fact, in every bureau, board and commission. This can lead to the most oppressive type of tyranny."

It is obvious these employees, as well as the Council on Foreign Relations control and dominate the lives of the American people. Many patriots are aware of this, but strangely, do nothing about it. Instead, they only emphasize the dangers of Marxian Socialism, but rarely is Fabian Socialism mentioned, even though the ultimate goal is the same. However, the American Legion, Department of California, did do something about it, when it adopted the following resolution during its Convention in Fresno, June 28, to July 1, 1962:

"WHEREAS, the Council on Foreign Relations has been exposed by extensive research and much testimony as being actively engaged in destroying the Constitution and sovereignty of the United States of America, and

WHEREAS, the Council on Foreign Relations has managed to force many of its members into positions of power in both political parties, and

WHEREAS, the powers of these Council on Foreign Relations members in the United States constitutes an immediate and major danger to the continued existence of the United States of America and to the freedom we have enjoyed, and

WHEREAS, the American Legionnaires have fought for our country, and hundreds of thousands of Americans have died for liberty, which is being swiftly destroyed by the members and programs of the Council on Foreign Relations, who, in the name of One-World-ism and United Nationalism, is surrendering our country to the enemy, proposing that our country be disarmed unilaterally or bi-laterally, that all individuals in the United States be disarmed to make enemy conquest easier, that our armed forces be turned over to the Communist-controlled United Nations.

NOW, therefore, be it resolved, that the American Legion in National Convention assembled in Las Vegas, Nevada, October 9 to 11, 1962, strongly urges every patriotic American to inform himself of the ways the Council on Foreign Relations is attacking the sovereignty of the United States of America, and take all possible action to save our country at its hands.

(Resolution 62-631-28)."

Instead of investigating patriotic groups, the Council on Foreign Relations should be investigated. Defeatists in Congress declare it would be futile to do so, because the majority of "key" jobs are occupied by Council members. This is pure fallacy, because there are quite a number of our solons who could compel such an investigation; however, they must have public support. Therefore, each and every citizen should write, telegraph or telephone their Senators and Congressional Representatives, demanding a thorough and complete investigation of the Council On Foreign Relations.

Reds Ensnare Unsuspecting Children

By RALPH W. McINNIS

One of the most dangerous, diabolical, and disgusting tactics of the communist plot to enslave the world is their use of unsuspecting children to do their dirty work.

Beginning in Russia, where communists taught their disciples to use any tactic whatever, no matter how dirty, to bring down the capitalist world, the reds trained small children to spy on their parents and teachers.

While the world's most ruthless and devil-inspired conspirators marched onward toward world conquest, those who escaped to warn a sleeping world were usually received with an air of skepticism, indifference, or even open hostility.

In that part of the Congo occupied by reds, ten year old children were trained in the expert use of blow guns, and many white missionaries and other foreigners fell victim to their poison arrows.

In the attempt by the reds to overthrow the government of the Dominican Republic, children down to age 10 were agitated to violence and ran in riotous mobs through the streets, vandalizing everything in sight.

Millions of Americans are loathe to believe that it could happen here, but in the sit-in demonstrations, the presence of children among the agitators is often much in evidence.

In Brooklyn, Harlem, Rochester, Jersey City, Birmingham, Chicago, and other cities, Negro children were agitated to violence against their white neighbors and were often put out in front to lead the demonstrations.

In the integration fiasco at Bogalusa, outraged Negro ministers spoke out against the attempted use of colored children to carry picket signs. And J. Edgar Hoover has said that millions of Americans have unwittingly served the communist cause.

In much more subtle forms, with full knowledge and consent of their unsuspecting parents, children have been put to work to serve communism. The youngsters have gone from door to door to collect funds for supposedly worthy causes — with the donations from kind-hearted but naive people going to communist countries.

On the East and West Coasts, children have been used in Christmas plays to glorify Alger Hiss's United Nations. And in many instances children have been used in Christmas programs, organized, directed, and presented by non-Christians, that were vile desecrations of the Christian faith.

In one of these so-called Christmas programs, which I personally witnessed in a public school, the only Christmas decoration was a lighted Christmas tree on the stage of the auditorium. Unbelievably, children had been trained to square dance around the Christmas tree to a jazzed up version of "Silent Night", followed by cowboy numbers, Negro spirituals, and Mexican numbers that had nothing whatever to do with Christmas.

The square dancing children wore red scarfs but no green, and known left-wingers who were present in the audience were seen to smile. Conspicuous by his absence at this desecration was Santa Claus, yet a straw-stuffed monstrosity, looking remarkably like Frankenstein, was sitting prominently on the stage.

In speaking of the degenerate capitalists, meaning us, the reds have boasted, "We will spit in their faces, and they will call it dew." But personally, I prefer to call it spit, and I prefer to spit back — like a spitting cobra—until every degrading red conspirator has been wiped from the face of our planet.

The outrageous uses of children to further communist aims is a shocking revelation of the total moral bankruptcy of these international criminals. And we are being victimized by the communist concept of total war. Furthermore, the chief red target in the communists' total war against us is the American child. If our children become thoroughly corrupted, the world belongs to the reds, and Moscow is fully aware of this.

In the meantime, the morality of our children is being eroded away by progressivism, and pornography; and our youngsters are treated daily to the most debasing sexuality over our managed TV.

How long, my fellow Americans, will we tolerate these outrages against our children? How long?

GREAT SOCIETY GIVEAWAY

Editor:

Rep. Otto E. Passman (D-La.) stated that the recently-passed Foreign Aid Bill of $3,495,470,000 is actually $7,512,467,000 when other "Hidden" Giveaway items are added. In addition to this, he said the unused carry-over in the Foreign Aid Fund amounts to $10,605,738,000. This makes a grand total of $18,118,205,000 that the egg-heads in our "Great Society" intend to give away!

This is 18 billion dollars of hard-earned workers' money, and lots of it will go to communist countries!

Nobody — but nobody — realizes the enormity of ONE billion dollars.

1 billion dollars, placed end-to-end, will circle the earth nearly 4 times! 18 billion would circle the earth 69 times!

18 billion dollar bills, placed end-to-end, would stretch to the moon 6 times!

1 billion SILVER dollars stacked FLAT, would make nearly 7,000 piles as high as the Eiffel Tower!

18 billion SILVER dollars, stacked FLAT, would form about 125,000 columns as high as the Eiffel Tower, which is 985 ft. high—equal to a 98-story building!

Now, add to this 18 billion give-away ANOTHER 4 billion per year interest we are paying—(principally to the House of Rothschild and foreign bankers) — each and every year . . . interest on the foreign aid that we already gave away — YOUR MONEY! No wonder socialism is progressing — on OUR money!

We are the most bankrupt nation in the World. We owe more than all other countries in the world combined. We owe nearly 2,000 BILLION DOLLARS! This is more than all the property in the U.S. on the assessment books. We are insolvent — completely broke! And yet, we are giving away our borrowed money by the BILLIONS!

IS TREASON THE REASON?!

Henry Riecke, Jr.

REGISTER COMMUNISTS, NOT FIREARMS

The Second Amendment to the United States Constitution provides that:

"A well regulated Militia, being necessary to the security of a free State, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed."

The Communist timetable calls for the confiscation of all firearms in 1966 if they are to succeed in taking over the United States through subversive tactics by 1970. The new bill in Congress to ban mail order guns is another Communist effort to get around the Second Amendment to the Constitution so that they can encroach upon the right to keep and bear arms as guaranteed by the 2nd Amendment.

Please write your Congressmen and Senators today and let them know you are against firearms control bills. Restrictive Gun Legislation, Firearms Registration and a law to ban mail order guns only makes it easier for the Communists to accomplish their goal. We want to keep America "Free and Strong," but we will never do it if we keep putting in restrictive Gun Laws.

"Existing Laws" should be strictly enforced with severe punishment for people who use firearms for illegal purpose, and not at firearms themselves or the right to keep and bear arms.

The people of the United States should demand outright repeal of the Federal Firearms Act of 1938.

Stop Senator Dodd's Bill S. 1592.
